

As an electrical engineer and active amateur radio operator I am concerned that the rf radiation from power lines used for BPL will be a serious polluter of the rf spectrum. Please consider the interference that BPL will cause to all users of the radio spectrum.